

Active IELTS writing
Task 2

Old buildings

You should spend about 40 minutes on this task

Many old buildings are protected by law because people think that they are important. However, other people think that these buildings should be knocked down to make space for new offices and homes.

How important is it to protect old buildings?

You should write at least 250 words